

B r i l l a

A wine that reveals itself slowly, but with the curiosity to see what it hides. Brilliant, bright straw yellow with some golden hues. A delicate and fresh aroma, just like its taste; initially, ripe yellow fruit leading to a pronounced mineral note in the finish

Piedmont, Italy.
Denomination: Piemonte DOC Cortese

Cortese

Enologist: Donato Lanati

Clayey soil with parts of marl

Soft pressing of whole, non-destemmed grapes; the resulting free-run juice is placed in stainless steel with controlled temperature fermentation at 18°C. Removal of heavy lees and cooling to 4°C to halt malolactic fermentation

8/9 months aging on the lees in steel

Aperitif wine

ABV: 12%
